CLOTFELTERS IN REUNION OBSERVE 100TH YEAR HERE

One of First Families Celebrates Migration from N. Carolina

Because of the rain the Clotfelter reunion and registration, celebrating the hundredth anniversary of the arrival of their ancestors from North Carolina in Montgomery county, was held at the Corner Block hall, Sunday.

An informal program was held following a basket dinner, at which Judge T. M. Jett spoke of the activities and hardships of these nine pioneers who came from North Carolina with their mother, Nancy Short Clotfelter. The father of these nine children was David Abner Clotfelter, who enroute with his family became ill, died and was buried in the Blue Ridge mountains of Pennsylvania. The names of the children follow together with the ones they married:

Amos Clotfelter married "Polly" Clotfelter. (Cape Girardeau County, Mo.)

George Lee Clotfelter married Jemina Hope.

William Clotfelter married Susan B. Scherer.

David Stokes married (1) Lucretia Weeds, (2) Mary P. Parker, (3) Sarah J. Hutchinson, (4) Mary C. Price.

Elizabeth Adelaide Clotfelter married Smith Barry.

Tirzah Clotfelter died at about age of eight years.

James Washington Clotfelter married Dorcas Best.

Mary Ann Clotfelter married Robert Allison Hope.

Zilpha Clotfelter married William Frame.

Family for a Century

The descendants of these "Original Eight" Sunday celebrated One Hundred Years of History in Illinois and resolved to carry on and be true to the responsibilities and opportunities as did ours before us.

In spite of unfavorable weather conditions 251 descendants and "in-laws" registered while some present failed to register, so that there were probably 275 or more actually present. The registration by families is given as follows:

Amos Clotfelter Line—71; George Lee Clotfelter Line—47; William Clotfelter Line—18; David Stokes Clotfelter Line—8; James Washington Clotfelter Line—24; Mary Ann Clotfelter Hope Line—40; Elizabeth Clotfelter Barry—25; Zilpha Clotfelter Frame—18; Total 251.

Many from out of town were present, Otis Frame of Muskegee, Oklahoma, coming the greatest distance. Fred Mitchell, wife and two daughters of Kansas City, Mo., Mrs. Jennie Murray and her daughter, Mrs. Frost Harden, her husband Frost

Harden, and son Murray Harden of Covington, Indiana, also traveled no small distance to do honor to these gone before, to renew old acquaintances and make new ones. A very goodly number were here from St. Louis, Missouri, Clayton, Missouri, and a number of Illinois cities. The weather kept other out-of-town kin from being present. Letters were received from Las Vegas, New Mexico. O'Donnell, Texas, Boone, Iowa, Medicine Hat, Alberta, Canada and Galesburg, Illinois, sending greetings.

Second Generation Present

It is worthy of note that a number of the second generation of the Clotfelters were present, viz:

Mrs. Alice Moss, daughter of George Lee Clotfelter; George Hope, son of Mary Ann Clotfelter Hope; Mrs. Mary Edwards, daughter of Zilpha Clotfelter Frame; Amos and George Frame, sons of Zilpha Clotfelter Frame, all living children were present 100 per cent; Jennie Murray, daughter of David Stokes Clotfelter and Sarah Hutchison Clotfelter; Mrs. Stuart Young, daughter of David Stokes Clotfelter and his wife Mary Price Clotfelter; Mrs. H. A. Cress, Sr., Miss Minnie Clotfelter, Mrs. Kitty C. Brown, daughter of James Washington Clotfelter; Ralph J. Clotfelter, son of James Washington Clotfelter.

The largest delegation present was that of Amos Clotfelter, the number being 71.

The oldest man present was Geo. Hope, son of Mary Ann Clotfelter Hope.

The oldest lady present was Mrs. Alice Moss, daughter of Lee Clotfelter.

The task of selecting the youngest grandmother nearly caused a riot. Mrs. T. P. Martin claimed the honor. This was violently protested by Mrs. Stuart Young on the ground that Mrs. T. P. Martin was an "in-law" and therefore could not qualify. Mrs. Martin being disqualified retaliated by scouting around searching for grandmothers younger than Mrs. Stuart Young, claimant of the honor. Her quest was successful and she proudly presented Mrs. R. L. (Edna) Murphy who blushing admitted she had been a grandmother for thirteen years. Mrs. Stuart Young then very graciously yielded this honor to Mrs. R. L. Murphy of Amos Clotfelter Line.

Grandmothers having been disposed of, young mothers "came to bat" presenting their youngest seeking the honor of parentage to the youngest baby present. Mrs. Chas. Atteberry started out the year 1934 by presenting to this present generation John Edward Atteberry, born January 1.

Some New Members

Mrs. Hugh Guiney was the next and successful aspirant, presenting John Thompson "Tom Thumb" Guiney born Friday, April 13, 1934. He is the son of Hugh Guiney and Beatrice Martin Guiney. His grandmother is Mrs. T. P. Martin, youngest grandmother present including "in-laws". "Tom Thumb's" grandfather, T. P. Martin, is the son of Mrs. Ida Martin, daughter and sole survivor of the children of William Clotfelter.

There was no competition for the honor of being the newest "newly-weds" this feature of the program going to Patricia Weingand and her recently acquired husband, Bob Bliss. Patricia comes of the line of Amos Clotfelter, her mother being Mrs. Andy E. Weingand, daughter of Amos Clotfelter II, son of Amos.

When the question of future weddings was mentioned the response of aspirants was very very quiet. But from the reports of diamonds worn by one or two who failed to register it is very evident that some intensive and extensive preliminary work has been done by the Clotfelters and that by this time next year progress may be reported.

Another item of special interest was given by Mrs. Cecil Murray Harden of Covington, Indiana, granddaughter of David Stokes Clotfelter. This being a certified copy of the marriage record of David Clotfelter and Nancy Short on Feb. 24, 1809.

So far as is known Mrs. Harden is the only one of the Clotfelter descendants who is a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She has gone to no small expense in establishing her eligibility to membership in this great national patriotic organization. All descendants of David and Nancy Clotfelter are eligible to membership in either the Daughters of the American Revolution or the Sons of the American Revolution through proof established by Mrs. Harden of the service of George Clotfelter, Sr., in the American Revolution for Independence. George Clotfelter, Sr., was the father of David Abner Clotfelter who married Nancy Short. Any one interested may secure information from E. M. Spilman.

Form Organization

Being very enthusiastic about this reunion and desiring a continuance of these pleasant relationships an organization of the David and Nancy Short Clotfelter association was completed with Dr. David Clotfelter chosen as president, E. M. Spilman as secretary and treasurer. An executive committee representative of each of the "Original Eight" was chosen as follows. This committee to be enlarged as advisable:

Amos Clotfelter—Len Clotfelter, Mrs. Joe Harkey; Lee Clotfelter—Frank Clotfelter, Rose Haag, Mrs. Joe Jones, Frank Shelton; William Clotfelter—Mrs. E. M. Spilman; David Stokes Clotfelter—Mrs. Stuart Young; James Washington Clotfelter—Mrs. Kitty C. Brown, Ab Cress, Jr.; Elizabeth Clotfelter Barry—Mrs. Amos Edwards, Mrs. Ab. Cress, Jr.; Ann Clotfelter Hope—Howard Hope, Mrs. Cora Cowan; Zilpha Clotfelter Frame—Amos Frame.

There was also a Clotfelter reunion held this same date at Fin-castle, Indiana, on Route 43 near Crawfordsville, Indiana.

Mr. Spilman, who made a detailed report of the meeting, did a valuable

PLAN CLOTFELTER REUNION

THE "CLOTFELTER BOYS"

Dr. David W. Clotfelter, Ed Spilman, and other members of the Clotfelter family, are planning a reunion of the Clotfelter family, for next month. A meeting was held Wednesday night, of a committee, to discuss such a reunion, as the Clotfelters who live in this part of the world, have not been together, all at one time, for a generation or two. If the reunion is held, it will take place at Lake Hillsboro Park, perhaps on September 2.

The descendants and their families, of two North Carolinians, David Abner Clotfelter and his wife, Nancy Short Clotfelter, would be eligible to attend the reunion. The couple were the "parent seed" of the many scores of Clotfelters living today in this vicinity. They left North Carolina, with their eight children, intending to settle near Cape Girardeau, Mo., a century ago, or more. Relatives of theirs were already living in that part of the west, and they expected to settle there also. They emigrated through the wilds of those pioneer times by ox team. During the weeks that passed, as the family was on the way from the Atlantic seacoast, to the great Mississippi region, David Abner Clotfelter, the father, fell ill, died, and was buried. The bereft widow, with her eight children, five sons and three daughters, did not turn back. Eventually the family reached Cape Girardeau, and their relatives. They did not remain there, as it happened, but came later to Hillsboro, settling here permanently.

From that time to this, six or even seven generations of Clotfelters have been represented. The eight Clotfelter pioneer children married, and helped replenish the earth. No one has ever counted up the living, direct descendants, of David Abner and Nancy Short Clotfelter, that we know of, but there are plenty of them. Should they all attend a Clotfelter reunion, with all their families, a large park, like Lake Hillsboro Park, would be necessary, as the scene of the gathering, or there would be little Clotfelter twigs on the family tree, spilling off, around the edges!

The eight Clotfelter children, half-orphaned during that long ago trip between North Carolina and Illinois, were:

Amos, Lee, David Stokes, William, James.

Zilpha, who became Mrs. William Frame; Anne, who became Mrs. Robert Hope; and Elizabeth, who became Mrs. Smith Barry.

In the picture are the Clotfelter boys, after they had ceased to be boys. The Clotfelter "girls" do not appear,—the picture was taken many years ago. Perhaps the pioneer opinion still prevailed, to a degree, that woman's place was at the fireside and the cradle, and the three Clotfelter girls were home doing their stuff!

Note: Lee's full and correct name was George Lee. It is given this way in his obituary and on his grave stone, Waveland Cemetery, Hillsboro, Illinois.

February 1969

Foreward:

Mrs. Fern Hinkle of Hillsboro Illinois was kind enough to lend me the original copy of the Clotfelter lineage as prepared by Eddie Spillman. I have attempted to update the Sarah Elizabeth Clotfelter branch as of early 1969.

Little do the Clotfelter descendants realize the mammoth undertaking; the patience and perseverance of Mr. Spillman in collecting, assembling and organizing this material and then writing it out in long hand.

I have dittoed several copies which I hope will be distributed among the several "lines" that Mr. Spillman's efforts will not be lost or destroyed.

It would be a wonderful contribution to the Clotfelter heritage if at periodic intervals someone of the eight branches of the George Lee Clotfelter line would volunteer to update the several branches and keep the linkage continuous and unbroken.

Respectfully submitted,

Harry E. Nelson

SERVICE

He enlisted in 1778 and served 5 months as Private in Captain John Sapp's Company Colonel Paisley's North Carolina Regiment. He enlisted in 1779 and served 3 months as Private in Captain John Sapp's North Carolina Company.

Veteran's application for pension was dated November 19, 1852, at which time he resided in Rowan County, North Carolina. He was then 75 years of age. Pension was granted. He signed his name in German script as Glatfelder; however his name was placed on the pension roll as Clodfelter.

This data came from the Comptroller General of the United States, General Accounting Office, Washington, D. C.

Felix Glattfelder was born in Glattfelden, Switzerland in 1674.

His son John Peter Glattfelder was born in 1700 in Glattfelder, Switzerland. He died enroute to America before he reached the port of embarkation; body returned to Glattfelden for burial. This was in 1742. The next year his widow and children came to America with her brother in law Casper Glattfelder and family and docked at Philadelphia on August 30, 1743; on the ship Francis and Elizabeth. Her children were Elizabeth, Barbara, Felix, Hans, Rudolph, Magdalena, and Casper. Felix was the father of George (our ancestor). Felix was born February 2, 1727 (don't have his death date). Felix married Sarah Meyer.

Their son John George (2nd son) was born in York County Pennsylvania August 18, 1751. He married Elizabeth Leonard before September 10, 1779. He died in Rowan County North Carolina in 1837. (this is the history of Elizabeth Leonard's parents) They were Valentine and Elizabeth Leonard. Valentine was born October 15, 1718, near Katzenbach, Germany; son of Martha and Anna Barbara (Gphon) Leonhardt, married November 11, 1704; came to North Carolina in 1746. Their children were: Barbara, Valentine, Michael, Peter, Catherine, Elizabeth, Philip, and Jacob. Valentine and all his sons served in the Revolutionary War. Their last <sup>father</sup> on March 13, 1781 at Guilford Courthouse. On November 2, 1781 Valentine Sr. came in from his days work on his plantation and after supper was resting before the fireplace. The door was open and a Tory shot through it and fled. Valentine fell from the shot and passed away November 13, 1781.

The children of John George and Elizabeth Leonard Glattfelder were: John George Jr., born April 10, 1783. David Abner, born July 22, 1785. Elizabeth, born February 19, 1788. Joseph, born May 19, 1790. Daniel, born September 26, 1792. Philip, born March 11, 1795. George's wife died sometime after 1795.

He married Mrs. Catherine Sowers later. According to records George and his relatives are buried in Rowan County, North Carolina, on his own farm which was granted to him by the King of England. These records are supposed to be taken from the Glattfelden Church in the Swiss Canton of Zurich.

David Abner Glattfelder married Nancy Short (born September 15, 1790), (died January 28, 1846) February 24, 1809. David Abner died on the way west and was buried in the mountains in Tennessee, 1835. Their children are: Amos L, David Stokes, William, George Lee, James W, Mary Ann, Elizabeth Adelaide, Tirzah, and Zilpha.

TO THE EDITOR:
I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 10th inst. regarding the matter of the purchase of the book "The Principles of Chemistry" by Sir Isaac Newton. I am sorry to hear that you have been unable to obtain a copy of the book. I have checked the records of the Department and find that the book was purchased by the Department in 1955. I am sorry that the book is no longer available in the Department's collection. I have no further information regarding the book's whereabouts.

Very truly yours,
